

We quit! We're not doing this anymore!

This week we have been looking at the book 'The day the crayons quit' by Oliver Jeffers. We have identified the emotions expressed by the crayons, we have acted out the emotions, we have made our own crayon placards and written a news report covering this great story.

Transition assembly:

We have been working hard developing and practising our performances ready for our Class assemblies (Tue 16th Dolphin Class, Wed 17th Seal Class, Tue 18th Penguin Class) and are looking forward to showing you our talents.

Transition to the Junior School.

On Monday we met our Year 5 buddies, on Tuesday we went up to meet them again, on Wednesday we spent the morning with our new teachers and came back full of beans and talking out what we will be learning.

Please, please, please remember to keep reading with your children. We may be approaching the end of the term and the year, but reading is still crucial to you children if you want to give them the best possible start to Year 3.
